“What goes around - comes around” by Kerry Kolke-Bell

This past's featured artist is Kerry Kolke-Bell. When asked what inspired her 2011 Meander theme, she had this to say:

What goes around - comes around.

This title is a nod to the interconnectedness of the world. The concept of recycling and sustainability is a key theme in the artwork, reflecting the idea that what we do today can have an impact on the future. The piece is meant to encourage viewers to consider their own actions and the consequences of their choices.
